

Read, cut, match and glue.

I see the chair .
owl.
cks.
ear.

Sight Words

Goldilocks, Goldilocks, why were you in my house? Snooping around like a little mouse.

You came in the front door acting very bold,
You ate my mom's oatmeal and complained it was too cold.

You should have gone back to the forest and headed south,
But instead you ate my dad's breakfast and burned your mouth.

1

You to fo
Goldilo

You sho
and there,
But you stayed and bro
little chair.

You crept into our bed
without making a pe
And jumped on our beds
we all go to sleep.

©2013V.Olivelli

you little like and the why
my
to our
of into a
it

Read the sight words. Trace the sight words. Find the sight words in the poem and circle them.

st sound you hear into the boxes.

g G G